STOCK MANAGEMENT SYSTEM

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Stock management system is to provide a application system which could maintain the data of the stock of the various items in the real time , along with many more data like the date of manufacturing of the item ,expiry date etc.

REQUIREMENT

- The owner can login using credential with them.
- The owner can add or delete a item via the Inventory.
- The system would consist of faculty or manager to say which would manipulate data for the particular batch of the item like the expiry date, quantity etc.
- The item class must have a way of viewing the information on them and also it would consist of the various information like the batch number etc.
- The system should be easy to handle.
- They should also consist of the details of the suppliers.
- They should consists of the details of the order and also the product details like the price etc.
- The system response time should be very low.